Chapter 2 - A New Penal Policy (establishing a rationale for the future)

1	Recommendation	Party(ies) responsible	Measure of progress	Timeline and milestones		Implementation Status
	The Review Group considers that any punishment within criminal sanctions should as far as reasonably feasible but subject to the principle of proportionality, also assist an offender's rehabilitation and reintegration. The Review Group therefore recommends that all of the key players involved in the administration of criminal justice and penal policy should take into account the aim of rehabilitation and reintegration of the offender when imposing and	Criminal Law Reform (CLR), Irish Prison Service (IPS), Probation Service (PS), Chief Information Office (CIO),	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Government Memorandum. Chapter 4 – ALTERNATIVES TO CUSTODY

	Recommendation	Party(ies) responsible	Measure of progress	Timeline and milestones		Implementation Status
8	The Review Group recommends the adoption of a strategy to reduce prisoner numbers to a safe level subject to the need to ensure proper protection of the public. This requires a focus on alternative approaches to the treatment of offenders. However, to achieve a reduction of prisoners in custody requires a level of collaboration and cooperation between all relevant Departments and agencies, including the IPS, Probation Service, An Garda Síochána, Irish Youth Justice Service, Department of Health and local authorities.	Diversion <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 39	The Review Group recommends an increased focus on effective data management. The Department of Justice and the criminal justice agencies should develop a shared agreement outlining how data is to be collected, managed and published by all criminal justice agencies and access to this data should be provided to researchers, within appropriate limits.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
