hi
I am firmly opposed to another tax on the people who are at the bottom of the income chain.
Instead the work should be put into forcing manufacturers to make all the containers recyclable.
Nike can make shoes out of recycled bottles etc so there is a market for the product.
Instead of charging people and using a system that people will just not bother with, oh and all the greenhouse emissions bringing the bottles etc to the centre.
Instead give the contract to Rehab/Glasco as they have for the bottles.
We have the operation in place and it helps fund Rehab Ireland.
Another kite by the minister for flying kites.
Yours
