Subject: Deposit Return Scheme - Consultation on Potential Models for Ireland

A chara,

I welcome the proposals to investigate and install deposit return schemes in Ireland.

I have seen the system in use in Carrickmacross and believe that it has worked extremely well. I would propose using a similar system to the same.

It is a well known principle in economics that people respond to incentives and a monetary or other like incentive would be paramount to the success of such an initiative.

Kind regards,
