I live in an apartment block which has general waste bins, green recycle bins & glass bins on site. I do not drive & do my shopping twice a week, my main shop I do on a Saturday & I walk down (30mins) & take the bus back, I also do a smaller midweek shop when I stop off on my bike coming home from work. I currently recycle all that is possible in the complexes refuse area & the thought of having to carry plastic and cardboard back to the shop every week or be financially penalised does not make sense in "my" situation!
