Dear Minister

1. The carbon budgets are not ambitious enough. Prof Barry Mc Mullen tells us that they only get us to a 6% annual reduction and we need to get to at least 7.6%.
2. I also believe we must be more ambitious as we have used up what it morally ours in terms of carbon budget.
3. Less backloading of the budgets please. Everyone benefits from just biting the bullet now. The finance from Europe is available now. We need to be more ambitious.
4. We need to lead the public, using scientific information. The public need to see courageous leadership and truth.

Thank you for all the work you do.
