

List of organisations who received Dormant Accounts funding under the Start-up Fund for Social Enterprise 2022

Name of Social Enterprise	Summary Description	Region	Amount
Carrickmacross Toy Library	Carrickmacross Toy Library tackles the problem of toy waste by offering a toy lending service to their local area which is affordable and sustainable for families.	Monaghan	€14,500
Clare Community Energy Agency	CCEA provide people and communities with an independent source of technical and financing information for energy-efficiency and small renewable energy projects.	Clare	€14,500
Common Ground Community-Led Housing	Common Ground follow a community-led housing model to create affordable housing, including continued price control by residents purchasing shares in the housing project, rather than purchasing a distinct building.	Wicklow	€14,500
Community Retrofits Ireland	Community Retrofits Ireland offer a one-stop-shop for retrofitting in the Connemara area, while providing training and employment to marginalised communities.	Galway	€14,500
Cycle Up	Cycle Up addresses the problem of textile waste by training marginalised unemployed women in repair and reuse of materials in a rural area.	Roscommon	€14,500
Going Far	GoingFar supports diverse migrant professionals in Ireland to achieve their career goals through a free 1:1 three month mentoring programme, with managers or directors of successful companies acting as mentors.	Dublin	€14,500
Gorm Media	Gorm Media addresses the disparity in representation in Irish media, and offers an online platform for young people of diverse backgrounds to contribute their voice and have open discourse in social and political issues.	Limerick	€14,500
Health Hub	Health Hub works in one of Ireland's most disadvantaged areas, tailoring their services to meet the community's changing needs. They offer fitness classes, educational training, a community garden and a community café.	Limerick	€14,500
Kindfolk	KindFolk operates an online second-hand store for children's clothes, thereby creating funding for women and children living in Direct Provision or Emergency Accommodation	Cork	€14,500
New Wave Wild Project	The New Wave Wild Project addresses the critical issue of youth mental health by providing professional adventure therapy for young people, adults, and families.	Kerry	€14,500
Pocket Forests	Pocket Forests plant small, dense, native forests in urban areas to reconnect people with nature, creating traded income from planting forests for private customers, contributing to the cost of public pocket forests.	Dublin	€14,500
Rise at the Cove	Rise at the Cove provides employment and supports for people in the final stages of their addiction recovery programme.	Wicklow	€14,500

Saoirse Ethnic Hands on Deck	Saoirse Ethnic Hands on Deck, is a peer-led social enterprise, selling various crafts handmade by migrant women, while providing formal artisanal craft training.	Cork	€14,500
Smashing Times International Centre for the Arts and Equality	The Smashing Times International Centre is an arts and digital hub that promotes human rights and provides services to marginalised communities.	Dublin	€14,500
The Bike Hub	The Bike Hub is an inclusive community focused bicycle store which upcycles and sells bikes and runs training programmes to encourage cycling.	Dublin	€14,500
The Dialogue Code	The Dialogue Code hosts experiential change management workshops addressing the challenges women and employees experience in work or to stay in the workplace with family and life commitments.	Cork	€14,500
The Good Summit	The Good Summit organises paid events which bring together students, academics, politicians, and activists in order to raise awareness of social innovation, encourage change in society, and provide a knowledge base for social action.	Dublin	€14,500
The Sustainable Life School	The Sustainable Life School delivers climate action workshops for communities and businesses, focusing on lifestyle changes in high impact areas such as food, fashion, energy and plastic reduction.	Dublin	€14,500
Trauma Responsive Education	Trauma Responsive Education enables educators to recognise trauma and adversity responses in children, and to support the best possible educational outcomes for these children.	Cork	€14,500
Your Community Pantry	Your Community Pantry collaborates with FoodCloud, redistributing surplus food to the community via their community pantry for a small fee, while providing food education and social connections.	Donegal	€14,500
Total			€290,000